

If what I read is true, it is most disturbing. Please do not limit ANY radio station or broadcast entity from programming such valuable information as traffic and weather conditions to its listeners. In this era of anxiety about terrorist attacks in our backyard the ability of radio to provide information helpful to the safety of American citizens is a vital public duty.